one

[redacted] vessel in port at the same time loading a cargo of salt [redacted] came from Poland. This also arrived at shipside in rail cars.

4. [redacted] no evidence of USSR Naval personnel although there was ample evidence of USSR troops and soldiers throughout the town.

5. [redacted] the townspeople [redacted] seemed to be extremely unhappy and dissatisfied. There was nothing to buy in the shops in the way of merchandise. The town gave evidence of being primarily a fishing village and [redacted] estimate it to have a population of about 15 to 20 thousand people. Most of the people seemed to be well fed.
